Parking: Whenever you visit Evergreen, please stop at the parking booth. You may pay $2.00 for a daily parking pass or exchange your Admissions' parking voucher for a parking pass. We recommend that you park in Parking Lot C. If you require a designated disability parking spot, the booth attendant will be able to identify these spots for you and will also assist you with directions from your parking spot to the Library Building.

Before you park, you may want to take a quick drive around the Library Loop. From the parking booth, continue ahead—there will be a small stand of trees to your left and you will see the flag posts. As you round the loop, the main entrance to the campus will appear and you might see an InterCity Bus. The loop is small and you're ready to park in Lot C—to your left.

Walking: Yes, Lot C is big. Your objective: walk back to the Library Loop. As you walk onto campus, the Evans Library Building is ahead of you. It's the easiest building to identify because of the clock tower.

Walk across Red Square to the clock tower and down one level. The building entrance will be slightly to your left.

If you need to use an elevator: enter the Library Building through the main entrance off of Red Square. The elevators will be to your right after you enter the lobby. You will be on the second floor of this building. Go down one level to the first floor. The Office of Admissions will be on your left as you exit the elevator.
