

Quiz

Large Passenger Van Driver Training

Check the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer or none of the answers may be correct.

1. Which of the following contribute to the potential for large vans to be involved in a rollover accident?
 - Excessive Speed
 - Improperly Inflated Tires
 - Driver distraction
 - All of the above.
2. A large passenger van will “drive” and react similarly to a standard passenger vehicle.
 - True
 - False
3. Which of the following are true?
 - The high center of gravity in large vans helps give the vehicle road stability.
 - The center of gravity in large vans is not much higher than a sedan when lightly loaded.
4. If your tire blows out, you should
 - Keep both hands on the steering wheel
 - Pump the brakes hard to slow down quickly
 - Pull off the road gradually
5. It is not necessary for passengers in large vans to wear seatbelts.
 - True
 - False
6. A ten (10) second following distance between the van and the vehicle in front of the van is a recommended minimum.
 - True
 - False
7. When parking on an incline/decline, it is not necessary to apply the parking brake if you shift the transmission into PARK.
 - True
 - False
8. Vehicle momentum can increase the chance of rolling a large passenger or cargo van when cornering.
 - True
 - False

9. When traveling down a long, steep downhill stretch, you should
- a) Downshift
 - b) Hold your foot on the brake
 - c) Not use the brake
 - d) A and B
10. You are driving when your cell phone rings. You should
- a) Answer the call
 - b) Have someone else answer
 - c) Ignore the call
 - d) B or C
11. Many large van accidents are caused by “overcorrecting”.
- True
 - False
12. When backing a van into a parking space, you should
- Back toward the driver’s side
 - Use spotters
 - Avoid situations where you need to back
 - All of the above
13. When loading and unloading passengers, you should
- Turn on your headlights
 - Park the van out of traffic or the traveled lane
 - Leave the motor running while you assist passengers