ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

This completed application form, accompanied by the $50 non-refundable application fee and other required application materials (see below) must be submitted to the Office of Admissions. Please be sure to complete the application checklist on page 4 to ensure your application is complete.

IN ORDER FOR YOUR APPLICATION FILE TO BE REVIEWED FOR ADMISSION, YOU MUST SUBMIT:

1. Documentation of your successful completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with a grade point average of 3.0 or its equivalent in the last 90 quarter or 60 semester credits. It is expected that four quarter credits or three semester credits will be in the area of child and adolescent development, lifespan development or another human development course, covering the cognitive, affective and psychological components of individuals. Official copies of your transcripts are required.
2. A résumé that includes key experiences relevant to your teaching.
3. A copy of your teaching certificate – both sides, if applicable.
4. TWO SEPARATE 2-page essays.
  - Essay 1: Address the endorsement area you wish to pursue and why.
  - Essay 2: Write a critical response to the following statement, and discuss how your background and experience have prepared you to face the issues described.

It is virtually impossible to be raised in the culture of the United States without being taught racial, ethnic, gender, and socioeconomic class biases, yet teachers today must be prepared to work with children from many backgrounds. They must also be prepared to demonstrate a commitment to the highest ideals of U.S. society and of public education.
