Puget Sound Colloquium—January 28th

The Puget Sound Colloquium will be held at the University of Washington on January 28th. This is an opportunity to network with colleagues from area institutions and participate in a presentation by Lee Bird of Oklahoma State University and Mary Beth Mackin of the University of Wisconsin, Whitewater, co-authors with Saundra Schuster, Senior Assistant Attorney General State of Ohio, of The First Amendment on Campus: A Handbook for College and University Administrators. Their presentation will focus on managing competing conversations in campus environments that have seen a coarsening of rhetoric. They will also focus on the promotion of campus civil discourse while valuing the freedom of expression. The program will begin at about 9:30 a.m. and conclude around 2:30 p.m.

Staff interested in participating should contact Wendy Endress. We will try to accommodate all interested on a first-come first-serve basis.

Art Costantino and Les Purce Honored by NASPA Region V

Vice President for Student Affairs, Art Costantino, received the prestigious NASPA Region V Fred Turner Award for Service to the Profession at the Western Regional NASPA Conference

in Long Beach, CA in early November. He was recognized for his continuous service to NASPA for over ten years, significant state or regional leadership, and ongoing support for and significant advancement of NASPA. President, Les Purce, received the first Region V President's Award. Les was acknowledged for advancing the quality of student life over a sustained period of time by supporting student affairs staff and programs.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Wendy Freeman, Director of Career Development, reached out to a recent alumni who was seeking a "green" job. Michael Weber's blog speaks highly of her advice and counsel.

"Wendy offered me valuable resume and cover letter tips and immediately began to send me links to job openings in my field. She also informed me that Evergreen's career services are offered for life at no cost to all alumni."
