

College operations and activities includes learning, teaching, research, administration, adjudicative process, public service functions or college-sponsored events or activities on or off-campus.

For example: classes, academic or student support resources or services (i.e. library, computer labs, facilities), work performed associated with operating campus, events and meetings.