

The complete Student Conduct Code may be found at this link, or a hard copy is available in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office in Library 3009. Below are definitions of conduct that is prohibited and may be at risk during a free expression event.

WAC 174-123-070(2) Conduct that obstructs or disrupts any college learning, teaching, research, administration, adjudicative process, public service functions or college-sponsored events or activities.

WAC 174-123-070 (5) Failure to comply with the direction of or failure to identify yourself to a college official or other public official acting in the performance of their duties.

WAC 174-123-070 (9) Unauthorized entry into or onto, or the unauthorized remaining in, or upon, any college premises; or the unauthorized possession, duplication, or use of a college key or other access device.

WAC 174-123-070 (14) Damaging, defacing, destroying, or tampering with, college property or other personal or public property. This includes, but is not limited to, graffiti and vandalism.

WAC 174-123-070 (16) Possessing firearms or other dangerous weapons other than to secure them with police services; the unauthorized use, possession or storage of any explosives, fireworks, dangerous chemicals, or substances; or the use of any instrument designed to cause harm, or realistic replica of such instrument, in such a manner which might reasonably threaten or cause fear or alarm to others.

WAC 174-123-070 (18) Harm, which is behavior directed at an individual that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent such that it diminishes or interferes with the ability of an individual to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or privileges provided by the college or an employee to engage in their work duties.

WAC 174-123-070 (23) Knowingly assisting another person to violate the code or failing to report to a college official conduct that constitutes significant damage to property or a serious danger to the health or personal safety of an individual.

WAC 174-123-070 (26) Being charged with violation of federal, state, or local law by law enforcement, or conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, under circumstances where it is reasonable to conclude that the presence of the person on college premises would constitute a danger to the health, or personal safety of members of the college community.

WAC 174-123-070 (6) Physical abuse of any person including, but not limited to, physical assault with bodily injury or the threat of physical harm to another person.
