

The Evergreen State College
Evergreen New Student Survey 2012
Olympia Campus

When do you plan on taking most of your classes this year?

Most new students who responded to this question – 95.7% of first-time, first-years and 86% of transfer students – indicated that they planned to take their classes in the daytime. A smaller percentage of first-time, first-years (4.2%) than transfer students (12.5%) intending to take classes during evenings or weekends. There were no first-time, first-year students that intended on studying through only contract or internship.
