

The Evergreen State College
Evergreen New Student Survey 2012
Tacoma Campus

Was there any information about Evergreen that was hard to find?

Thirty two Tacoma students provided responses about the availability of information about Evergreen. Tacoma students mostly indicated that they did not have any problems finding information about Evergreen. A few noted issues with difficulty identifying class schedules and general information about the Tacoma program offerings.

Was there any information about Evergreen that was hard to find?

	Tacoma students*
	%	N
Yes, there was information that was hard to find	25%	8
No/Nothing/Not applicable without additional details	75%	24
No, Nothing with additional details	0%	0
Total		32

*Categories are not mutually exclusive

Class schedules and descriptions, catalog, and registration

Maybe how to apply for classes

It is IMPOSSIBLY hard to understand which classes I can take, want to take, or cannot take. It is hard to understand what the classes even are!

In Tacoma campus it is hard to see the schedule when class will start.

Difficulty in website navigation, other web-specific comments

The website was hard to use at first, but playing with the site helped.

Financial aid information and cost information

Financial aid

Evergreen's unique structure

It is IMPOSSIBLY hard to understand which classes I can take, want to take, or cannot take. It is hard to understand what the classes even are!

Student activities, clubs, recreational opportunities

How to get into the student government here?

Other things hard to find/unavailable

Information on your Tacoma program is very confusing on your website.

Classes needed to complete Human Resources? What type of degree is there for Human Resources? Info about Human Resources.